- Group Reservations must be made no later than 3 weeks before the requested performance date.
- 10 or more tickets must be purchased to qualify for the group discount rate. One Complimentary ticket will be provided in addition for the group organizer.
- A non-refundable deposit of 50% of the requested seats being reserved will be required at the time of reservation. A single Processing fee of $5 will be charged for the entire group upon final payment.
- Once final payment has been made, additional seats may be added at the group rate but will include the processing fees per additional ticket.
- Any remaining unpaid seats will be held for up to two weeks after the deposit has been made. If not paid in full within the 2-week period, the remaining unpaid reserved seats will become open to public sale.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Conversations with members of the artistic team before or after the show are something we strive to provide whenever possible but may not be guaranteed. If your group plans on enjoying a meal at the Biltmore before or after a performance, a dramaturgical discussion may be possible then as well. Please let us know in advance if this is something your group may be interested in by checking a box below!

Yes! I am interested in enhancing my groups experience by participating in a dramaturgical discussion before/after the performance in the theatre.

Yes! My group will be planning to dine at The Biltmore and are interested in enhancing our experience by participating in a dramaturgical discussion during our meal.
